DEDICATION . . .

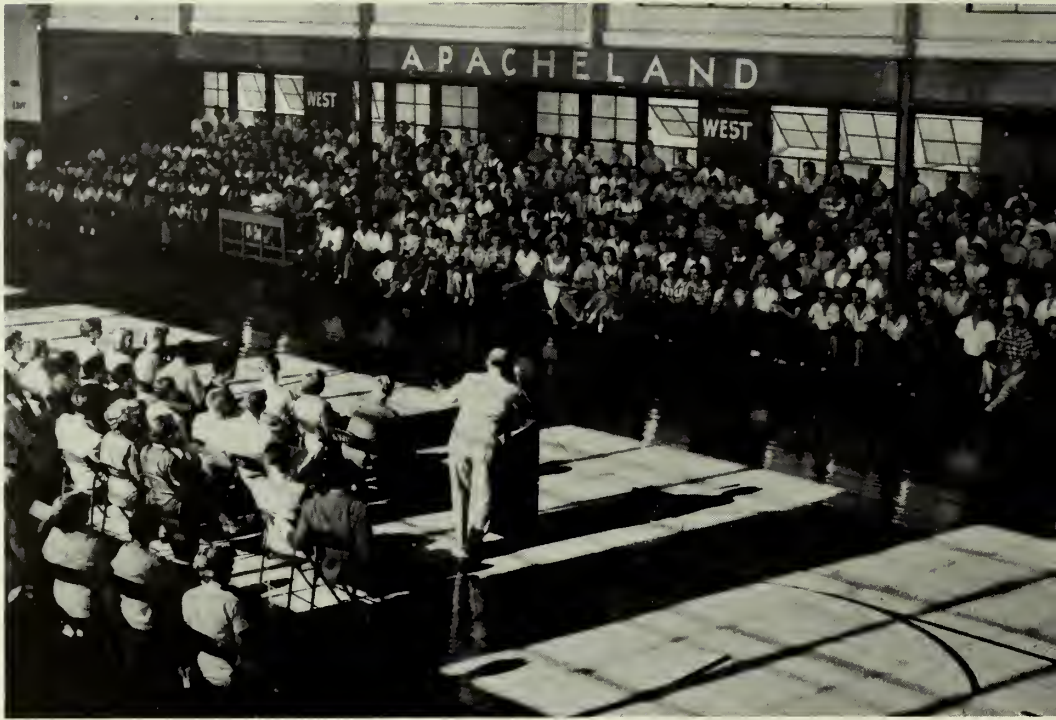

. . . JUDGE AND MRS. THOMAS RAMEY

In grateful appreciation of their generosity to Tyler Junior College and for their continued interest in the development and improvement of every phase of its program, and their invaluable assistance in promoting its welfare, we, the 1957 Yearbook Staff, dedicate the APACHE to Judge and Mrs. Thomas Ramey.

CAMPUS LIFE

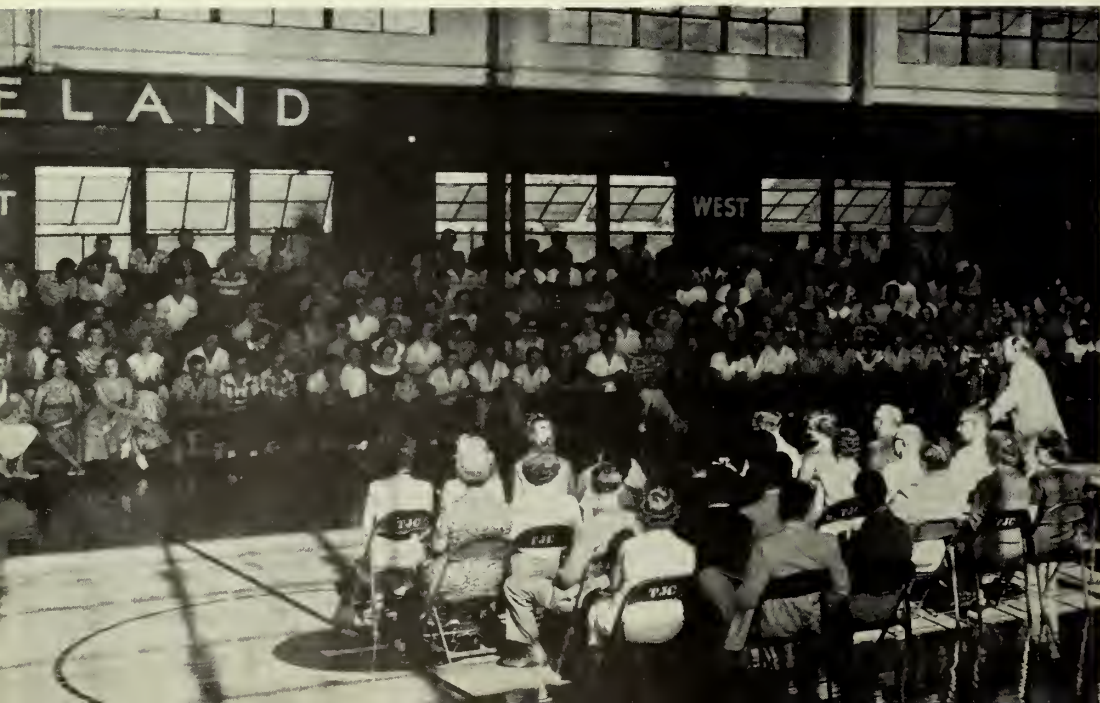

*ANN RAY, EDITOR
MARCIA MANESS, ASSISTANT*

'ROUND ABOUT TJC

In the beginning freshmen started the year from scratch. New students eager to taste their first campus life. Teachers with eagerness to test them.

Registration went hand in hand with orientation for newcomers. These first meetings gave us an opportunity to catch up on summer gossip or to meet the person destined to sit next to us in History or English!

SCHOOL STARTS AGAIN...

We focused our attention on classes, teachers, and classmates. Our instructions were to sign our names on the dotted line. Our schedules were outlined, and we began our fall semester of '56.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

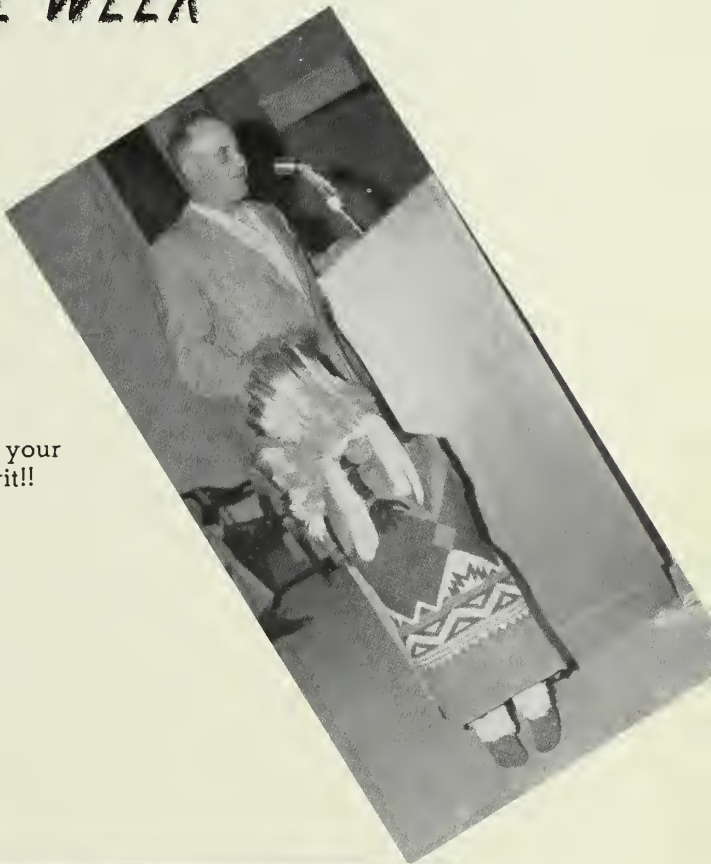

Rusty Ingram, Homecoming Queen of '56, arrives on the football field to accept flowers from Larry Larrison.

And then came the time of the year, sophomores dream about and freshmen wonder about . . .

KILGORE WEEK

Show your Spirit!!

TJC'ers yelled in loud response . . . Yea, black! Yea, gold!

The cheerleaders screamed during this week of spirit.

"Throw more wood . . ."

A light from a match sent flames hundreds of feet into the Apache air.

MEMORIES ARE MADE OF THIS

A freshman hanged

A man from outer space at the Sadie Hawkins Dance

Open your mouths and sing.

A flying Tugboat?

WHERE TJC'ERS "CHAT AND CHEW"

Mrs. Bodeker and Mrs. Ward, friends of the coffee fiends, dole out juke box change and pass the doughnuts to the many students who make the Teepee a habit.

Bull sessions in chaos.

The boys have their daily exercise.

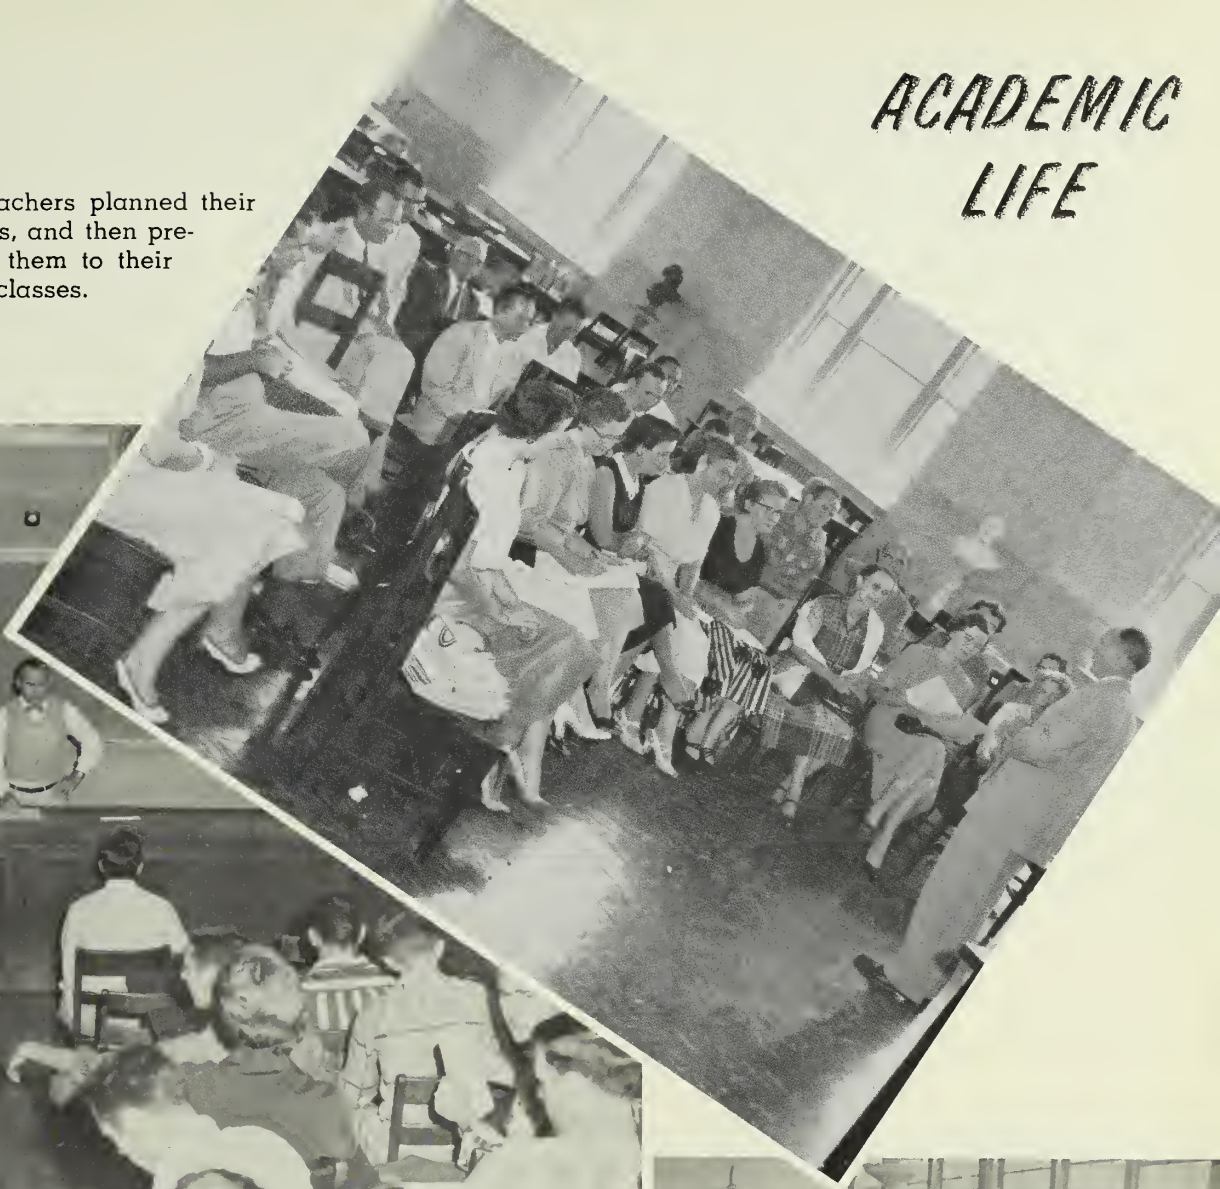

Typical is the group who lives in the den of iniquity

ACADEMIC LIFE

The teachers planned their lectures, and then presented them to their smart classes.

Test tubes and a well-thumbed manual are the property of us who take chemistry.

The Hall of Silence?

CHRISTMAS DANCE

Frances Ann Allen was crowned queen of the Christmas Dance which was held in the library. The couples who attended this formal event looked fine in their after dark dress.

HERE & THERE

Everyone loves a pep rally in the Teepee.

A sleepy bunch of students in Assembly.

This is our team?

Another action shot of our pep squad.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

A coke party is held for men only.

Pinky looks a little pink.

Numbers 75, 45, and 60
the Apache team approach the field as fans watch wildly.

NAPSHOTS

Pat Boone's taste for beauty is as good as his taste for music.

A Jam Session

The Apaches are on the warpath again!

A group of girls from a town nearby.

WESTERN WEEK

This week was a big success. Kappa Sigma Lambda worked hard to get everyone in the country style. Pete and Fred inspect a six-shooter in front of the square TJC ranch.

Peasant blouses, printed skirts, bonnets, overalls, corn-cob pipes, and beards were all in vogue during western week.

APACHE BAND AND BELLES

ABOVE: T. J. C. Dance Band rehearsing future shows.

BELOW: The newly organized STAR DUSTERS of T. J. C. is composed of Mike Smith, Roland Crawford, Larry Ballard, Jimmy McGuyer, and Ronnie Porter.

The Band and Belles enjoy their first meal in New Orleans. Dinner at the NOAC.

Going aboard The President for a trip up the Mississippi River and the harbor.

Boys waiting for girls.

The Baylor Bear catches the eye of some.

Even here, outside the Sugar Bowl, a domino game is going.

The Baylor Bear drinks a coke for the Belles.

The APACHE BELLES pose for LOOK.

The APACHE BAND plays as the Belles perform.

The APACHE BELLES dance for LOOK.

The APACHE BELLES go through routines that they will use in football stadiums and on the streets of many towns.

Both the Band and the Belles work hard in the summer.

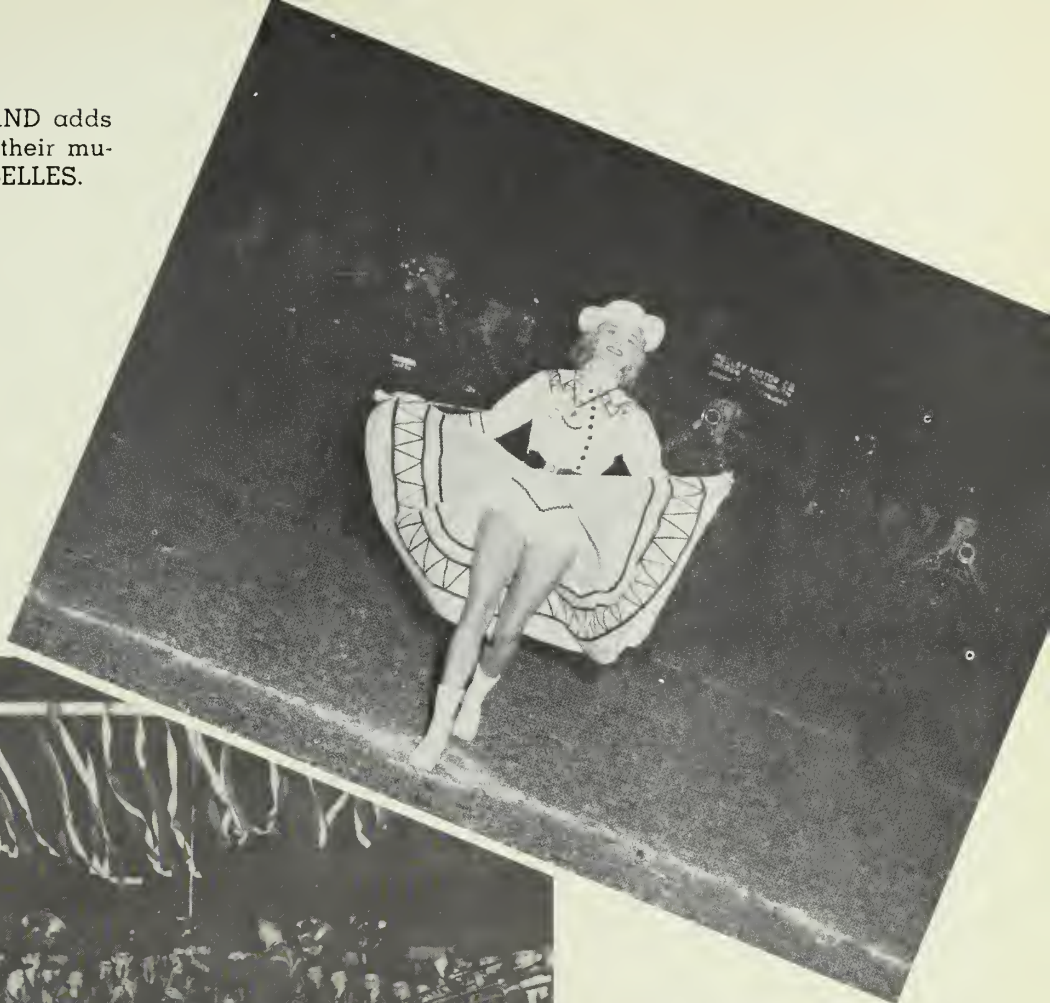

The APACHE BAND starts early to build up their lips and get ready for the new years events.

The APACHE BELLES present their usual color and glamor to add to the spirit of one of America's favorite sports,

FOOTBALL

The APACHE BAND adds to the half-time with their music for the APACHE BELLES.

LAKE TEXOMA

My aren't they cute?

Even Pinky likes something else besides dominoes.

Doesn't the pool look refreshing?

Band Officers, Jimmy McGuyer, President, Phil Brakebill, V. P., and Linda Minshew, Sec., seem to be discussing something, wonder what.

Jimmy McGuyer, Student Director, looks over a new tune.

The Apache Belles marching through Rose Stadium add to the highlights of Tyler's annual Rose Festival.

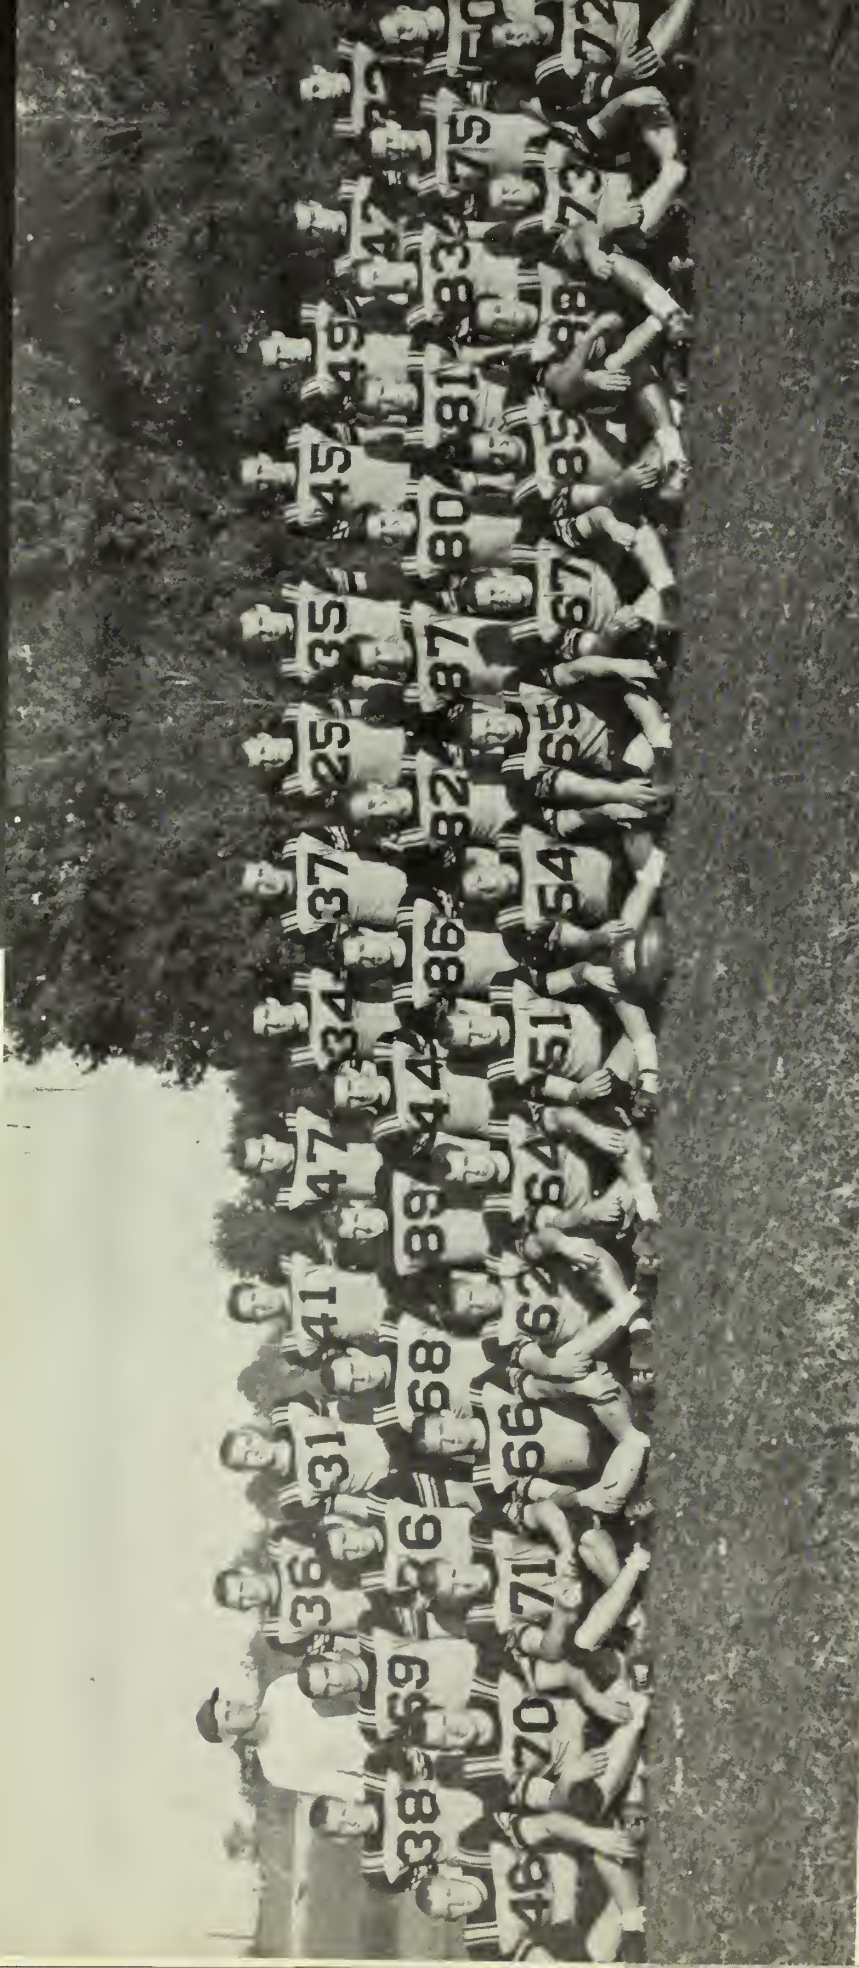

Lanell Rowell Apache Band Princess, whose twirling has thrilled many, finishes her routine with a great finale.

Ann Tunnell directs the Belles while performing on football fields.

FACULTY

IN APPRECIATION . . .

The Apache Yearbook Staff wishes to take this opportunity to speak for the community and the faculty and students of Tyler Junior College, in expressing appreciation of a former teacher of the college: MISS MILDRED HOWELL.

For her unselfish giving of her time, energy, and abilities; for her inspiring courage; for her infectious enthusiasm; for her warm sincerity; and for her true nobility of character, we are deeply grateful. We believe that the vacancy left by her retirement is felt by all who know and love her.
